Shotcrete Rehabilitation of the Noblestown Road Bridge

The "intention" that things are caused to fulfill is their telos, or end. Aristotle's Metaphysics (Book II, 1026b30-31) says that things have a telos only when determined to a specific end by nature. But the determinations are not absolute. As he says, "it is not necessary that things be determined to a specific end by nature" (1026b31-32). In other words, things can be determined to a specific end by nature, but they can also be determined to a specific end by art.
