Barb Curtis was diagnosed with a rare type of breast cancer (HER2 triple negative) on April 11th, 2008, at the tender age of 46. Due to her young age and rare cancer, the doctors needed to attack this cancer hard.

During this difficult time of being out of work and insurance difficulties, the Curtis family has struggled with accrued expenses.

Please join us in supporting our friend Barb!

You can follow her journey at www.caringbridge.org/visit/barbaracurtis

All proceeds will go to Barb to help with expenses.
