

NEWS ALERT

Cortec® Eco Works® - Not Your Average Bag.

Cortec® Corporation offers a unique line of certified biodegradable/compostable films made from sustainable resources that can be customized into bags for your promotional needs.

Cortec's patented Eco Works® film is a smart alternative to polyethylene based film used in the market today. Whether you are looking for retail, storage, or display bags; Cortec® can provide a customized, environmentally sound solution to fit your film needs.

The United States Department of Agriculture and the University of Minnesota have been among the recent customers to realize using Cortec® products are the way to go.
