Cortec® Europe Presents New Distributor in Iceland!

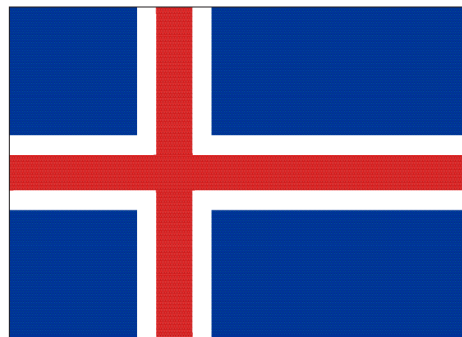

We are happy to announce that Mr. Jon Runar Sigurdsson of Cortaekni ehf, has joined the Cortec® Europe team as a new distributor in Iceland. Cortaekni ehf will be promoting and offering Cortec® VpCI® technological solutions in the Icelandic market. The main focus for this market will be temporary coatings and MRO industrial corrosion control products.

Mr. Runar Sigurdsson has met with the Cortec® team in Croatia for training, visiting our Zagreb office as well as EcoCortec's staff in Beli Manastir where our manufacturing facility is located. Mr. Sigurdsson comes with an extensive engineering background, which will certainly help grow the Icelandic VpCI® market quickly.

It is always great to welcome a new addition to Cortec's family and see our technology and solutions expanding. We welcome Mr. Sigurdsson and wish him happy selling!
