

NEWS ALERT

A New Channel of Information-Sharing for Water Treatment Professionals!

We are excited to announce the 2020 launch of a new LinkedIn page specifically for the water treatment industry! Grab your phone, computer, or tablet and visit the Cortec® Water Treatment LinkedIn showcase page any time to find great ideas and practical, effective corrosion solutions to share with your water treatment clients.

Follow us to stay up to date on our regular weekly posts, which will include links to case histories, news, publications, and industry-leading corrosion solutions. This is also your place to discuss water treatment corrosion and scale problems, ask questions, and share insights from your own experience, so we invite you to get involved today. Whether you work with boilers, closed loops, cooling water, or hydrotesting, we want to know how we can make the new water treatment page most helpful for you!
